

A 4-day training course for those brokering multi-stakeholder partnerships

16 - 19 July 2019
London, United Kingdom

There is a growing demand worldwide across all sectors for greater competence in managing the partnering process in multi-stakeholder partnerships more effectively and efficiently. This is particularly so with the business, not for profit, government and education sectors increasingly seeking to work together to solve complex social and development problems. This unique and highly sought-after programme provides those working in and on partnerships with frameworks, tools, techniques and skills development to build their confidence and competence as partnership brokers.

A partnership 'broker' is an intermediary building effective and innovative collaboration between partners. Partnership brokers can be either internal – responsible for negotiating or managing partnerships on behalf of their organisation – or external – those offering independent partnership brokering services.

Established in 2003, the globally recognised Partnership Brokers Training builds the practical brokering skills and professional practices necessary to address complex challenges in the partnering process at all phases of a partnership's life cycle.

Previous participants come from business, government, international agencies and non-profit organisations:

Accenture Development Partnerships, Addax Petroleum, Africa Development Bank, Aga Khan Foundation, Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, BBC, Birdlife International, Business in the Community, CARE, City of London, Cooperatives Europe, Earthwatch, Fairfood International, Flora & Fauna International, GTZ, HelpAge International, Marie Stopes, Microsoft, Mondelez International, Nabard Bank, Nike, Oxfam, Partnership Resource Centre, Plan International, PWC, Red Cross, Rio Tinto, Save the Children, Sea Alarm Foundation, Shell, Start Network, Total, Tullow Oil, UK Department for International Development, UK Department of Justice, UK Sport, UNDP, UNICEF, UNHCR, Unilever, US State Department, Voluntary Service Overseas, War Child, WEF, WHO, WWF, World Food Programme, World Vision

"This programme has given my partnership brokering work a 'soul'. The delivery was precise and to the point. I now have a clear picture of the entire brokering process and how best I can execute my role. I have renewed confidence and increased skills. It was an excellent experience."

What is the Partnership Brokers Training Programme?

A 4-day skills training and professional development that includes:

- A theoretical framework for partnership brokering and the importance of good brokering in the development of robust, efficient and innovative partnerships, consortia & coalitions
- Brokering skills development in: scoping, resource-mapping, facilitation, partnering negotiation, relationship-management, reaching agreement and reviewing
- Exploration of common partnership brokering challenges
- Action planning for individual applications of the lessons from the course

A small, diverse participant group will maximise potential for personal attention and individual opportunities for skills building and professional development.

Objectives of the training:

- Deepen understanding of professional partnership process management (partnership brokering)
- Introduce partnership brokering concepts and practical tools
- Build key skills and professional confidence in this field
- Explore innovative approaches to problem-solving and transformative interventions
- Promote a 'reflective' approach to professional practice and partnership brokering good practice principles
- Create new knowledge about partnership brokering and its value

Training Team

JULIE MUNDY - Julie is the Director: Training at the Partnership Brokers Association, and a highly experienced independent partnerships specialist. Julie has worked in international development across Asia and Southern Africa for over 20 years, in project and organisational design, management, strategy, leadership and governance. As both, an internal and external partnership broker, she advises across a wide range of sectors, including climate change, health, governance, education and housing. Her recent brokering focus has been complex partnership agreement negotiations between governments, international corporates, and NGOs, conducting reviews of major government/NGO/donor partnerships, as well as designing and conducting partnership training and capacity building programs for a range of agencies. Julie is a PBA Accredited Partnership Broker, and a PBA Authorised Practitioner Trainer and Mentor.

LOLA GOSTELOW - is an Associate of the Partnership Brokers Association. She is a humanitarian policy analyst with extensive operational, advocacy and research experience spanning over 25 years. Lola is currently working with the PBA leadership team to refine PBA's strategic position and capability in partnership process management ('brokering'). Lola has applied her facilitation and training skills in her brokering and humanitarian work. She also has expertise in: humanitarian system structure/mechanisms; humanitarian partnerships and coordination; quality and accountability; and humanitarian principles.

Lola is a Trustee of the Start Network, an innovative model of humanitarian partnership and action, and she teaches at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine on humanitarian policy.

"This Partnership Brokers training will challenge you at the personal level as much as at the professional level. I found it to be very practical, and have already used tools I learned within my organization to strengthen and redefine our current partnership. The hands-on learning methodology allows you to experiment with the tools and get valuable feedback. I will definitely continue to develop my skills as a Partnership Broker."
