

A 4-day training course for those brokering multi-stakeholder partnerships

23 - 26 October 2018
London, United Kingdom

There is a growing demand worldwide across all sectors for greater competence in managing the partnering process in multi-stakeholder partnerships more effectively and efficiently. This is particularly so with the business, not for profit, government and education sectors increasingly seeking to work together to solve complex social and development problems. This unique and highly sought-after programme provides those working in and on partnerships with frameworks, tools, techniques and skills development to build their confidence and competence as partnership brokers.

A partnership 'broker' is an intermediary building effective and innovative collaboration between partners. Partnership brokers can be either internal – responsible for negotiating or managing partnerships on behalf of their organisation – or external – those offering independent partnership brokering services.

Established in 2003, the globally recognised Partnership Brokers Training builds the practical brokering skills and professional practices necessary to address complex challenges in the partnering process at all phases of a partnership's life cycle.

Previous participants come from business, government, international agencies and non-profit organisations:

Accenture Development Partnerships, Addax Petroleum, Africa Development Bank, Aga Khan Foundation, Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, BBC, Birdlife International, Business in the Community, CARE, City of London, Cooperatives Europe, Earthwatch, Fairfood International, Flora & Fauna International, GTZ, HelpAge International, Marie Stopes, Microsoft, Mondelez International, Nabard Bank, Nike, Oxfam, Partnership Resource Centre, Plan International, PWC, Red Cross, Rio Tinto, Save the Children, Sea Alarm Foundation, Shell, Start Network, Total, Tullow Oil, UK Department for International Development, UK Department of Justice, UK Sport, UNDP, UNICEF, UNHCR, Unilever, US State Department, Voluntary Service Overseas, War Child, WEF, WHO, WWF, World Food Programme, World Vision

"This programme has given my partnership brokering work a 'soul'. The delivery was precise and to the point. I now have a clear picture of the entire brokering process and how best I can execute my role. I have renewed confidence and increased skills. It was an excellent experience."

Course graduate (Bi-lateral agency, India)

Drawings courtesy of Maria Hayes

What is the Partnership Brokers Training Programme?

A 4-day skills training and professional development that includes:

- A theoretical framework for partnership brokering and the importance of good brokering in the development of robust, efficient and innovative partnerships, consortia & coalitions
- Brokering skills development in: scoping, resource-mapping, facilitation, partnering negotiation, relationship-management, reaching agreement and reviewing
- Exploration of common partnership brokering challenges
- Action planning for individual applications of the lessons from the course

A small, diverse participant group will maximise potential for personal attention and individual opportunities for skills building and professional development.

Objectives of the training:

- Deepen understanding of professional partnership process management (partnership brokering)
- Introduce partnership brokering concepts and practical tools
- Build key skills and professional confidence in this field
- Explore innovative approaches to problem-solving and transformative interventions
- Promote a 'reflective' approach to professional practice and partnership brokering good practice principles
- Create new knowledge about partnership brokering and its value

Training Team

MICHELLE HALSE - Michelle is a highly-experienced partnering, collaboration and innovation specialist and a PBA Accredited Partnership Broker, Trainer, Mentor and Associate. She has specific experience in international development, global innovation challenges, social innovation. Michelle has brokered partnerships with consortia for international health, humanitarian capacity building, vulnerable children and families, women's legal services, education, livelihoods and social inclusion in the UK, USA, Australia, across the Asia-Pacific and Africa. She has worked in catalytic philanthropy building the collaborations to support collective impact initiatives. She is particularly interested in the new forms of shared, collaborative, leadership required for the challenges and disconnects facing the world today. She holds a MSocSc in International Development and GDipBus in Management.

CATHERINE RUSS - Catherine is an Accredited Partnership Broker and facilitator. She has worked in senior and advisory roles in the humanitarian and development sectors for Save the Children, ELRHA and RedR. Catherine's learning and development work goes back over 15 years and includes setting up cross-sector collaborative initiatives, strategy development, facilitation and assessment of humanitarian training programmes in countries such as Sri Lanka, Sudan, Pakistan, Chad and Haiti. She has overseen the development and assessment of trainers and facilitated on numerous training programmes. Her Partnership Brokering work has led her to most recently specialize in partnerships and consortia work and supporting groups to develop skills and tools to maximize collaboration. She holds an MSc in Adult Education and Training. On behalf of PBA, Catherine is currently curating a new initiative to focus attention on, and build capacity for, remote partnering practice.

"This Partnership Brokers training will challenge you at the personal level as much as at the professional level. I found it to be very practical, and have already used tools I learned within my organization to strengthen and redefine our current partnership. The hands-on learning methodology allows you to experiment with the tools and get valuable feedback. I will definitely continue to develop my skills as a Partnership Broker."

Course graduate (OCIC Member, Canada)

Who should attend and criteria for acceptance

To be accepted onto the course, applicants should be active partnership practitioners involved in the management and development of multi-stakeholder partnerships and should be able to demonstrate the following:

- Educational attainment at higher education level in a related field and/or practical experience that combines analytical capabilities with an aptitude for working with diverse groups;
- Management support for their participation in this course;
- Opportunities for the practical application of partnership brokering skills.

Please note that participants who attend all sessions will be awarded a PBA certificate entitling them to become alumni of the Association and to apply for further training opportunities (see details below). Anyone who misses one or more sessions without an acceptable reason will be able to complete the course but will not be entitled to receive the PBA certificate nor be eligible for further trainings.

Further training opportunities

Participants who complete the Partnership Brokers Training will become alumni of the Partnership Brokers Association (PBA) giving them access to learning / research findings, tools, case studies, support services and further training options. These are: A long-distance mentored programme leading to Professional Accreditation or Walking the Talk (a 5-day course offering more advanced partnership brokering skills). PBA is the global professional association for those brokering partnerships and other forms of multi-stakeholder collaboration.

Application and fees

The fee for the training is GBP 1400.00. This includes tuition costs, background reading materials, copies of all the training materials. The fee does not include travel, accommodation or meals. The fee will be payable with your application. Your place on the course will be secured only when full payment has been received. To foster diversity in the programme, a maximum of 4 participants from the same organisation are permitted to join.

Application: Please download and fill in the London application form at www.bit.ly/LondonPBA and send it to info@partnershipbrokers.org.

The venue

The venue is Lumen, situated within the heart of the Kings Cross area overlooking Regents Square. It is a RIBA award winning building. The training rooms overlook a courtyard garden, providing a quiet space for focused working in central London.

Address: Lumen URC, 88 Tavistock Place WC1H 9RS, London, UK

Closest tube stations are Kings Cross St. Pancras and Russell Square

Photo by Nick Kane

Enquiries and applications to info@partnershipbrokers.org.

Visit www.partnershipbrokers.org and tweet about your partnership brokering experiences @PBA_Brokers.