

PARTNERSHIP

BROKERS

TRAINING

A 4-day training course for those brokering and managing multi-stakeholder partnerships

25 - 28 February 2019
Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

Partnerships and collective impact initiatives are multiplying in Canada, as multi-stakeholder collaborators come together to positively advance social issues. But how do we partner effectively? Partnering can be highly challenging to those involved and often falls short of expectations. The people involved in making partnerships happen are key to partnering success. This highly sought after global training program builds their knowledge and skills and provides them with the tools and insights to deliver positive partnering results.

JS Daw & Associates and the Partnership Brokers Association (PBA) are proud to bring this unique training program to Vancouver. The course provides those working in partnerships with in-depth development on how to partner effectively. You'll leave with:

- Tools, techniques and skills development for brokering partnerships that get results
- Enhanced confidence and competence as partnership practitioners
- A framework and knowledge for robust, efficient and innovative partnerships
- Understanding common principles, barriers and enablers of multi-stakeholder collaborations
- Ways to overcome common partnership brokering challenges (both for those working internally and independently) and ways to overcome these
- Personal and professional insights into the roles, skills and competencies needed in building successful collaborations
- Membership of a global professional association of partnership brokers offering support, research, networks and further development opportunities.

The course can be used immediately for professional development and/or real-time partnership building. When partners from different organizations attend together, they build a common language and framework while developing strategies for the design, management and review of their partnership.

Join this intensive program and you will be part of a diverse group from business, non-profit, community, government, education and philanthropy. The group will be limited to 24 participants with two facilitators in order to maximise potential for exchange and personal attention to individuals.

"It was a very intensive four days, but beautifully structured, both in the flow of the work and the management of each activity. Everyone dove in, sharing often profound insights from a broad and impressive variety of backgrounds."

About us

Partnership Brokers Association (PBA): Established in 2003, PBA is the international professional body for those managing and developing collaboration processes. PBA's primary aims are to:

- Challenge and change poor partnering practices so that multi-stakeholder collaboration can become truly transformational
- Ensure those operating in partnership brokering roles are skilled, principled and work to the highest standards
- Promote the critical importance of partnering process management to decision-makers in all sectors

JS Daw & Associates is a vibrant, boutique consultancy that guides leading organizations in designing innovative and measurable community strategies, programs and partnerships to drive competitive advantage and enhance social performance. www.jsdaw.com

"This training was practical and immediately applicable to the challenges I was facing in a variety of multi-sector partnerships. The combination of a diverse range of participants, real life experiences, action learning and practical applications made for a very worthwhile investment. I highly recommend it to any one who plans to be involved and need to be more effective in multi-sector work."

Who should attend and criteria for acceptance

This course is for active partnership practitioners involved in the management and development of multistakeholder partnerships; no matter what title you have. You could be a relationships manager; a community entrepreneur; a leader in innovations; working in communications or delivering services through collaborations.

A partnership broker is an intermediary building effective and innovative collaboration between partners. Partnership brokers can be either internal – responsible for negotiating or managing partnerships on behalf of their organization – or external – those offering independent partnership brokering and support services.

To be eligible for acceptance into the program, you must be able to demonstrate:

- Educational attainment at higher education level in a related field and/or practical experience that combines analytical capabilities with an aptitude for working with diverse groups
- Opportunities for the learning from the course to be applied in the near future

Participants who attend all sessions will be awarded a Partnership Brokers Association certificate entitling them to become alumni of the Association and to be eligible for further courses. Anyone who misses one or more sessions will be able to complete the course but will not be entitled to receive the PBA certificate.

“Great opportunity to learn about the partnering process, to put a frame around your practice and meet a strong group of individuals doing this work from many sectors.”
