Partnership Brokers Training

Canberra 2022

8 - 11 November

Training Team

Our Training Team members are Accredited Partnership Brokers and PBA Authorised Trainers, and are drawn from the most experienced and respected Partnership Brokers in the world. Practitioners first and Trainers second, they have extensive current brokering experience informing their training.

KATE HAYES is a highly experienced partnerships, organisational design and strategy specialist. She has over twenty-five years of senior level experience working across the public, private, and community sectors in Australia and in international development across Asia and the Pacific. Her core work, motivated by reconciliation in Australia and the ambition of the sustainable development goals (SDGs) more broadly, is strategic and facilitative – seeding and facilitating partnerships and strategy across ideas, sectors, agencies, and communities. Kate is at her best serving multi stakeholder, cross sectoral partnerships grappling with complex issues. She works both independently and with the Partnership Brokers Association (PBA). Kate serves on the PBA Strategic Team and as Co-Lead for their Global Training Portfolio, and is both a PBA Authorised Practitioner Trainer and Accredited Partnership Broker.

RHONDA CHAPMAN has worked in international development cooperation and community development for over 25 years. She works with NGOs and government in Australia, has lived and worked in Central America and Cambodia, and currently works with clients in regional Australia, Australian NGOs, SE Asia and the Pacific. She provides advisory support in partnerships, program review and evaluation, governance and leadership, organisational systems, and capacity development. She is also the co-founder of a coworking and enterprise support space in regional Victoria where she applies partnering principles to help small and micro enterprises thrive and collaborate. Rhonda is a PBA Authorised Practitioner Trainer, Mentor and Accredited Partnership Broker.

JULIE MUNDY is an Accredited Partnership Broker, Associate, Trainer and Mentor with the Partnership Brokers Association and was previously, Lead: Training, Governance and Regional Portfolios. She is one of PBA's most experienced trainers and partnership brokers/specialists. Julie has worked in Australia and internationally across Asia, the Pacific and Africa for over 25 years, in project and organisational design, management, strategy, leadership and governance. She advises multi-stakeholder partnerships across a wide range of sectors, including climate change, health, governance, education, infrastructure, research and housing. Her recent brokering focus has been complex partnership agreement negotiations between governments, international corporates, and NGOs, conducting reviews of major cross-sector partnerships, designing and conducting partnership training and capacity building programs for a range of agencies, and a current focus on systems thinking to embed 'business unusual' to achieve sustainable change.

YESHE SMITH is a highly experienced partnership broker and partnering skills trainer. Her partnering practice developed from over 20 years working in international development, scoping, designing and managing cross-sectoral partnerships for social change across private sector, NGOs, government, community and faith-based organisations, health, education, and research partnerships. Yeshe has specialised in pacific work for over twenty years, and has a particular interest in navigating race and culture in the partnering environment. She now works as an independent partnership broker and trainer with a portfolio of partnership work including ongoing international work in Asia and the Pacific, and a wide range of Australian partnership work in government, health, education and the community sector.
