Multistakeholder and cross-sectoral partnerships are multiplying, but how do we support those guiding and leading partnerships to achieve the “more than the sum of the parts” results we are all seeking?

Drawing on global experience and designed to appeal to all types of learners from diverse sectors, this course balances conceptual and practical learning. It creates a safe space to support personal and professional development and is designed specifically for those involved

This course provides

- A framework for creating robust, efficient and impactful partnerships
- A focus on critical partnership principles, to drive values-based partnerships for stronger results
- Unique, fit for purpose tools and techniques for brokering partnerships that get results
- Enhanced confidence and competence as a partnership practitioner
- Strategies to overcome common and complex partnership challenges
- Personal and professional insights that build competencies to support successful partnerships
- Access to a vibrant global network of over 4,000 alumni and an opportunity to join as a professional member of the Association.

in the challenging work of brokering and supporting partnerships throughout the project cycle to deliver results and impact.

Lead by highly experienced Authorised Practitioner Trainers from the Partnership Brokers Association, this globally sought after training offers an important opportunity for partnership practitioners to hone their skills with a diverse group of participants from business, non-profit, community, government, education and philanthropy.

The course can also be used for real-time partnership building when partners attend the course together and leverage the lessons to guide partnership strategy, management or review.

Successful completion of this course allows the graduate to progress to the Partnership Brokers Accreditation pathway and/or Advanced Skills program.

“ Really excellent, thoughtful design and delivery which has provided much needed insights and the opportunity for me to consolidate my understanding of good practice and move well beyond this to explore potential areas, practices, tools and understandings which I am confident will benefit my work for years to come. ”

Training Team

Our Training Team members are Accredited Partnership Brokers and PBA Authorised Trainers, and are drawn from the most experienced and respected Partnership Brokers in the world. Practitioners first and Trainers second, they have extensive current brokering experience informing their training.

RHONDA CHAPMAN - has a 25 year career in international development, working with NGOs and government in Australia, and across the Asia and Pacific regions. Her leadership was recognised by the Australian Council for International Development (ACFID) with the Outstanding Contribution to the Sector Award in 2018. In recent years she has expanded her focus to working with regional and national organisations in Australia. Rhonda offers specialist services to anyone with aspirations to work better together, supporting people to navigate the complexities of partnerships, collaborative leadership and diverse organisations. And wombats have been her favourite animal since her days studying zoology, but don't tell her dog. Rhonda is a PBA Authorised Practitioner Trainer, Associate, Mentor and Accredited Partnership Broker.

YESHE SMITH has worked in community development for over 20 years. She is currently the Programs and Partnerships Manager for the Institute of Human Security and Social Change, at La Trobe University and also undertakes advisory partnership work in other partnerships across a range of sectors. She has conducted partnering skills training in Timor-Leste, Indonesia, Bangladesh, Nepal, Papua New Guinea, Fiji and Australia, and has brokered partnerships in more than ten countries. Yeshe has a particular interest in the intersections of race and culture in the management of effective partnerships.
