Who should attend this course?

This course is designed for active practitioners involved in the management and development of cross sectoral, multi-stakeholder partnerships and is not an introductory course. Participants will need to have had some experience working to build effective and innovative collaborations between two or more partners. Past graduates have come from business, the community, government, international development agencies and non-profits working in and across diverse spheres.

Admission to the course is by application.

Further Opportunities

Participants who successfully complete the training will be awarded a Partnership Brokers Association certificate and granted access to a global network of over 4,000 professional alumni. PBA alumni are eligible to apply for Advanced Practice training, and the globally-recognized and mentored program leading to a professional qualification as an Accredited Partnership Broker.

Partnership Brokers Association

The Partnership Brokers Association, established in 2003, is the international professional body and training resource for those managing and developing partnership processes. PBA's training work is informed and regularly updated in consultation with international practitioners.

PBA is dedicated to promoting professionalism and integrity in brokering multi-stakeholder partnership for sustainable change and impact by:

- Elevating partnering knowledge and practice so that collaborations can become truly transformational
- Supporting partnership brokers to take a principled and skilled approach to reach the highest standards of partnership excellence
- Promoting the critical importance of the partnering process for decision makers in all sectors to achieve ambitious results
