Do you manage diverse groups & partnerships?

“Before attending the course, I had a rough understanding of what a partnership should look like and what might be important in supporting them. This course, however, opened my eyes to the many layers of a partnership and the various facets of brokering them. It was the first time I got to know a principle-based, elaborated approach to partnerships. The learning will undoubtedly be helpful in my future work.”

Who should attend this course?

This course is designed for active practitioners involved in the management and development of cross sectoral, multi-stakeholder partnerships and is not an introductory course. Participants will need to have had some experience working to build effective and innovative collaborations between two or more partners. Past graduates have come from business, the community, government, international development agencies and non-profits working in and across diverse spheres.

Admission to the course is by application.

Further Opportunities

Participants who successfully complete the training will be awarded a Partnership Brokers Association certificate and granted access to a global network of over 4,000 professional alumni. PBA alumni are eligible to apply for Advanced Practice training, and the globally-recognized and mentored program leading to a professional qualification as an Accredited Partnership Broker.

Partnership Brokers Association

The Partnership Brokers Association, established in 2003, is the international professional body and training resource for those managing and developing partnership processes. PBA's training work is informed and regularly updated in consultation with international practitioners.

PBA is dedicated to promoting professionalism and integrity in brokering multi-stakeholder partnership for sustainable change and impact by:

- Elevating partnering knowledge and practice so that collaborations can become truly transformational
- Supporting partnership brokers to take a principled and skilled approach to reach the highest standards of partnership excellence
- Promoting the critical importance of the partnering process for decision makers in all sectors to achieve ambitious results

Training Team

Our Training Team members are Accredited Partnership Brokers and PBA Authorised Trainers, and are drawn from the most experienced and respected Partnership Brokers in the world. Practitioners first and Trainers second, they have extensive current brokering experience informing their training.

YESHE SMITH is a highly experienced partnership broker and partnering skills trainer. Her partnering practice developed from over 20 years working in international development, scoping, designing and managing cross-sectoral partnerships for social change across private sector, NGOs, government, community and faith-based organisations, health, education, and research partnerships. Yeshe has specialised in Pacific work for over twenty years, and has a particular interest in navigating race and culture in the partnering environment. She now works as an independent partnership broker and trainer with a portfolio of partnership work including ongoing international work in Asia and the Pacific, and a wide range of Australian partnership work in government, health, education and the community sector

Arthi Patel is an Accredited Partnership Broker. She has over 20 years' experience designing, managing and evaluating multistakeholder international development programs and policy. Her first career as a human rights lawyer focused on working with migrants and refugees in Australia, building partnerships across legal and community organisations to empower migrant and refugee communities. Her recent work has focused on bringing together climate scientists with social scientists and local communities to build resilience to disasters and climate change in Pacific countries and on supporting collaborations within the university sector. She has worked in NGOs, government, and the private sector and is skilled in understanding the context and priorities in each of these contexts. She is values-driven and fosters collaborations to enable equity and fairness.
