PBA has undertaken several deep explorations, pushing the boundaries of partnership brokering. These are described in some detail at these separate websites:

Remote Partnering

*Defying
Distance*

Funders as Partners

We are ready to re-open any avenues of research or enquiry, and would be delighted to hear from you if you have any ideas or would like to support such work. Please email: info@partnershipbrokers.org
